

A DECADE OF GLOBAL STUDIES: PEACE AND SECURITY IN AFRICA

Starting in October 2012, the Universities of Addis Ababa and Leipzig offered a new, interdisciplinary two-year MA and three-year PhD study programme in the field of Global Studies with a special emphasis on „Peace and Security in Africa” in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia.

After a successful running of both programmes during the last 10 years with 50 graduates of the Master Programme and 8 defended PhD thesis, numerous DAAD scholarship holders and variety of guest lecturer and research exchange, we would like to celebrate the anniversary during one week of December at the Institute for Peace and Security Studies in Addis Ababa.
